SENATOR HARRISON GOES TO WASHINGTON.

IT is gratifying to learn Senator Pat Harrison has left the Army and Navy Hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., where he had been a patient since March 14 and returned to Washington Sunday night.

The senator who had been resting and taking thermal baths at Hot Springs was said by hospital officials at the time of his admission to be suffering "primarily from fatigue." Although returned to the scene of his duties, Senator Harrison will continue to rest, only going to and from his office gradually and assuming his activity in the same manner.

That Senator Harrison is well again will be news that is hailed by numberless admirers of this brilliant and beloved Mississippian, who, in the discharge of his duties, had virtually exhausted all energy. A personal friend of President Roosevelt, it is well that he is back in Washington with the chief executive, particularly in these times of stress. His colleagues, too, will be glad to have him back.

SAFEGUARDING THE HIGHWAYS.

SHERIFF'S office announces in addition to its patrol forces additional men from the State Highway Department will be stationed locally on Highway 90, from Pearl River to Bay St. Louis.

These men are strangers, so to speak, to our people. They know neither friend nor foe, and they will diligently enforce the law regardless of who is disregarding rules and violating laws. Beside they will help the local officers who cannot do all patrolling unaided.

Attention will be paid to motorist who fails to keep on his side of the road, to the fellow who fails to dim his lights when another car hoves into sight, and last but not least, to the lunatic who exceeds normal speed. Then there is the individual who has a drink too much, the car with no tail lights and down the line.

Since the first of the year some eight persons have lost their lives on this particular stretch of highway, and some seventeen people injured and possibly crippled for life.

We wish to commend our county officials for taking the initiative in this matter and for their determination to put an end to this orgy of wild and reckless driving.

DISGRACEFUL IN THE EXTREME.

AT Atlanta, Ga., Former Gov. James M. Cox, during the course of an address to graduates at Georgia Tech, declared the "American answer" to isolationists is that if war is necessary to preserve the democratic way of life, then war let it be.

"A civilization that will not fight to destroy besetting parasites will not live, nor does it deserve to live," said the 1920 Democratic presidential nominee.

He added that he did not believe "the need will come of sending our soldiers overseas, it is machines, not men that we must supply."

Cox, now publisher of the Atlanta Journal and other newspapers in Ohio and Florida, also condemned strikes in United States defense industries, declaring:

"What a singularly disgraceful thing it would be if soldiers went on a sitdown strike. Yet it would be no more culpable than the scenes we are witnessing now in too many American factories. War calls for sacrifice and it must be a common sacrifice—not the sacrifice alone of families that are giving up their young manhood."

GOVERNMENT CASH FOR BUSINESS.

SOMEBODY said the other day that they did not know that the government of the United States was paying out any money for the benefit of business.

Well, a small item comes from the Maritime Commission, which plans to study the need of American shipping lines for subsidies from the government.

The Commission points out that the nation is now paying $13,000,000 a year to American flag ships owned by twelve different companies. Here we have individual initiative and rugged individualism at its best—getting the swag from the government in order to demonstrate that private capitalism is profitable.

ANDREW JACKSON HOUSTON.

THE presence of Andrew Jackson Houston in the United States Senate, representing the State of Texas, reminds the people of the United States of the historic events connected with the Lone Star State.

Mr. Houston is the eighty-six-year-old son of General Sam Houston and the oldest person ever to be sworn in as a member of the U. S. Senate. He took his seat in Congress a little more than 113 years after his father became a member of the House from the State of Tennessee in 1829. He served in the Senate where his father represented Texas when it gave up its sovereignty to enter the Union.

Defense is the watchword. Every individual in the country should be united in the one purpose of building a strong defense.

U. S. O.

THIS stands for United Service Organization, a new set-up by civilians under auspices of the federal government.

The country's quota is ten million, seven hundred thousand dollars, and Hancock county's share to be raised to help create this amount is put in round figures at $400.00, surely a small amount comparatively speaking.

And a small amount, indeed, when we consider the purpose for which civilians are raising this money.

It will be used to take care of, entertain the selectees when not on duty. These young men, away on leave hours and visiting nearby places, as their time will permit, must be taken care of.

The government will build over three hundred "huts" over the country, not too far from camp sites, wherein the selectees may be entertained.

The U. S. O. unites the efforts exercised in the last war of the Salvation Army, Y. M. C. A., Jewish Welfare Organization, National Travelers' Aid Association, Knights of Columbus, and other organizations. Each at that time worked separately, and many contributors in this way gave several times over the amount they would be expected to give in single sum. This will avoid overlapping and clarify a wide scope of work. However, while small contributions are accepted and the donor's limited ability to give is appreciated, nevertheless, it is expected the contributions will be more than if the contributor were giving to a single organization.

Hancock county has named its committee with Dr. James A. Evans chairman and a board of directors. These men will meet Thursday evening of this week and solicitors, members of a committee, will be appointed and the work of raising the desired sum begun. Everyone will be asked to give cash. We are near war. And there is no mistake about this.

We are going to be called upon to make a sacrifice if we are going to retain our liberty assured by our form of democratic government, and this is one of the sacrifices we will have to make now and without hesitancy.

A NEW PLANT FOR DEFENSE.

IT is almost impossible for any citizen to visualize the immense progress the United States is making toward adequate defense.

One of the most significant phases of this preparation is the construction of new plants to produce weapons, munitions and supplies. It is impossible to keep up with all construction, but, occasionally, the newspapers tell of a spectacular achievement.

An example of this is the plant recently opened in Connecticut to produce powerful, armor-piercing machine-guns. Six months ago, a vacant lot was selected as the site of the plant which is now producing more than 1500 weapons a month.

The gun in production was designed by Carl G. Swobillius, well-known producer of automatic weapons. It is a .50 calibre-type machine-gun, firing 750 bullets per minute. Each slug, a half-inch in diameter, and almost two inches long, leaves the muzzle of the weapon with a velocity of 2,350 feet per minute.

The plant is now working on a contract to provide 12,000 weapons for the British. It began operating less than seven months after the contract was discussed, because the company did not wait for new machine tools but took used machinery wherever available and rebuilt it when necessary. In fact, some of the machinery used in the factory came to the United States from France after the fall of that country to the Nazi invaders.

POTENTIAL POSSIBILITIES.

PASSING Dunbar avenue one cannot but view and be impressed with the possibilities of our lands and value of its soil.

We note where formerly existed a vast tract of idle lands. A. G. Favre, the local owner who recently acquired possession, has had the soil filled and planted. Results are various crops are blossoming forth like the proverbial green bay tree.

Mr. Favre has demonstrated beyond successful contradiction the potential possibilities of our land hereabouts. He has had the place fenced in, a dwelling built thereon, outside of the city limits, since the land is in both city and county, and crops of various kinds of vegetables flourish. Corn, beans, tomatoes, etc.

And if we be correct, there is a poultry yard. Everything about a successful truck farm. This should serve as an example to those who will. It requires a little diligent thinking and doing. Our lands would increase in value if we were to follow Mr. Favre's example and make them productive. It would afford a better living and from a mercenary point of view yield dollars and cents. We, of Hancock county, are not that rich that we can pay no regard to possibilities of our lands.

We have unlimited confidence in our people. They have unlimited possibilities and we feel sure they take advantage of every prospect.

"WE WANT PEACE!"

THE people of the United States want peace. They want peace for themselves and for the world, with which they like to trade, especially when it comes to the selling of their own products.

Unfortunately, for the people of this country, the world has no peace and it is not likely that the people of other countries will be able to buy much of our products when peace arrives, unless we are willing to do much to help them.

This is not possible under an isolationist policy and there are many Americans who still believe that the nation can enjoy peace by simply ignoring what is happening in Europe, Africa and Asia.

There are many provincial thinkers, alive and active in this country who have no conception whatever of the Hill theory of international trade but who, to the contrary, believe that you can sell and sell and sell without ever buying anything from your customers.

Some say that the people of this country, desiring peace, will be possible only when we understand our relationship to the problem which is before us. We are willing to share in the development of the peace and accept the responsibility which it entails.

JAIL THE RADICALS

(Philadelphia (Miss.) Democrat)
There is a great majority of labor in this country today with its wages and its working conditions.

But we are infested with racketeers, communists, bundists and others who are causing all the trouble.

The thing we need to do above all others is to herd this handful together and either cut off their heads or hang them to the nearest apple tree.

It is shame and disgrace when our leaders in Washington permit the safety and welfare of this nation to be jeopardized by permitting such antics to go on.

If this handful of radical headed by John L. Lewis, were caught and clapped in jail, you would see peace and harmony come to the front.

The arrest and jailing of a hundred men would stop all the trouble dead in its tracks.

It could be done in a few hours.

These people—Lewis, Bridges, Murray, and others like them, are doing more to wreck this country and bring it under Hitler's control than any other one thing.

The people of the nation are getting tired and fed up with the situation.

There would be ten times more zeal and enthusiasm throughout the country in behalf of the defense effort but for the feeling of the people that they are being taken for a buggy-ride in connection with strikes and other crippling incidents.

It looks as if everybody is being called on for taxes and for sacrifice except Lewis and his henchmen.

But not a sound comes out of Washington about it.

DRAFT ALL ALIKE

(Neshoba Democrat)

THE War Department is offering a bill that would give President Roosevelt unlimited powers to draft property.

We have long contended that it would be proper to draft materials, plants and wealth for war purposes.

But we have likewise contended that labor itself should be drafted for war.

It is significant to note that the army proposal is absolutely silent as to labor.

Which is unfair and discriminatory.

If the manpower of the nation can be sent to the army camps, and if the wealth and property of the country can be taken over, why is it that labor isn't called on to share in the draft?

If business can be taxed and restricted as to profits from defense work, why can't labor be told that it must be satisfied with present wages and that it must stop these strikes?

It is all rank and rotten discrimination. There is no other names for it.

The thing that cause concern to the people is that they are the ones most affected—the millions who constitute the average citizenry.

It is they who will bear the brunt of the situation.

It is they who are striving to pay the taxes that pay the salaries of all Washington and of the entire war effort.

It is they who do the great majority of the job at hand. It is they who are greatly concerned over the strikes that stifle production and over the mounting cost of doing the job.

Official Washington, safe and secure and snug in their fine buildings with private elevators, private secretaries, private kitchens and bath rooms, private aspirin, private barber shops and private lunchrooms, are not bothering much about it.

Federal experts say 37,500,000 at work, topping 1929 peak.

FOR DADDY'S DAY

(For The Sea Coast Echo)

Mr. daddy's name was written Upon no page of fame. He was no haughty hero For ages to acclaim.

He was of modest merit When matched with such as these. From him I could inherit No princely pedigrees.

But he was brave and honest And knightly to the core, The cream of all the commons, And who could ask for more?

His love of God was loyal. He served his state with zeal. His home he called his castle. His court of last appeal.

His wife, his sons, and daughters, His neighbors, great and small, Rose up to do him honor. And loved him none and all.

Hearts of earth was better Because he passed that way. Thank God for such a father. On Daddy's Day.

Mrs. Chips In Technicolor

Greer Garson, fondly remembered for her interpretation of Mrs. Chips and her Elizabeth in "Friede and Prejudice," will have a re-creation of a real life role in her new film, "Blossoms in the Dust," dealing with the absorbing career of Mrs. Edna Gladney of Texas. The picture is in color, with Walter Pidgeon in the leading male role.

Hollywood Echoes.

JOAN CRAWFORD'S success in her recent film, "A Woman's Face," has caused her studio to look around for another story with plenty of oomph. Joan's many fans rejoice that her luck has changed and hope it is a permanent change.

Hollywood is crowded with an unusual number of promising youngsters. In fact, MGM has so many newcomers that they are practically tumbling over one another. Three novices will be introduced to the public in the forthcoming Hardy family film, the name of which, at the present time, is "Life Begins for Andy Hardy."

Because it might set precedent which would prove troublesome later on, Army headquarters scotched Paramount's plan to film Bob Hope's next comedy, "Caught in the Draft" in a certain California cantonment.

Production of her newest Technicolor film has been delayed because Jeanette MacDonald is suffering from continued hay fever, which puffs up her eyes. Technicolor, which is highly sensitive, would probably accentuate this condition.

In order to placate those Senators whose feelings were hurt by their picture, "Mrs. Smith Goes to Washington," which portrayed a senator as unscrupulous and crooked, Columbia is offering a peace gesture to the Senators in the form of a film entitled, "Adventure in Washington," in which all the senators are strictly on the up-and-up.

THE ARMY'S ON THE MOVE!

ARMY maneuvers on a scale vastly greater than ever attempted in this country are under way and will continue for several months. The scene of these maneuvers is the nine southern states served by Southern Bell.

It will be both a test and training for the army as well as for the civilian population which provides the vital means of communication, transportation and supply. Essential to the success of these maneuvers is an adequate, dependable system of telephone communication. This the Southern Bell Company is providing whenever, wherever and in whatever amount the fast shifting armies require. This means that the Telephone Company, like the army, is keeping its sources of supply, transportation facilities and man power ready day and night so it can act on the moment. Past years of training and experience in meeting emergencies have already prepared our army of telephone workers for this big task.

It is the Telephone Company's plan to take care of the army's needs with little, if any, serious interference with the public's accustomed use of the service. During these maneuvers, however, there may be occasions when for short periods of time our facilities will be mainly required to meet the army's sudden and unexpected needs. Should this happen in your community, your wholehearted cooperation will be a helpful contribution to the successful advancement of preparedness.

The contracts of most of the leading actors and actresses of Hollywood contain special clauses which give them particularly desired privileges. Among them, one might mention:

Gene Autrey's contract has a clause which forbids his employers to show him smoking a cigarette, taking a drink or making too realistic love.

Errol Flynn has a clause in his contract which calls for payment fifty-two weeks in the year, with three months' vacation with pay.

When H. B. Warner portrayed the role of Christ in "The King of Kings" there was a clause in his contract forbidding him from being seen smoking, drinking or eating in public.

Adolph Menjou has a clause in his contract which permits him to stop work at 6 p. m. on the dot, whether he's in the middle of a "take" or not.

Jeanette MacDonald under her contract, has the right to buy her own shoes and to have a three-months' vacation a year from Hollywood for a concert tour.

Clark Gable and Carole Lombard were hardly back from their four-week vacation before Clark was summoned to begin work on "Honky Tonks," in which Lana Turner also appears.

Pentecost Services At DeLisle Catholic Church

At the 8 o'clock mass before a large audience on Sunday, June 1, Father Sorin explained in a simple manner the meaning of the great Festival of Pentecost, that is the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the apostles.

1. Christ kept the promise of his fulfillment.

2. The effects of the coming of the Holy Ghost, all knowledge of the faith, courage and strength, gift of tongues and miracles.

3. That the church was commissioned to be the guardian of all truths to preach to all nations, to prevail over her enemies, time, world—the devil.

4. Yes, men dare say the church has failed.

The church at DeLisle was filled to the doors. More than two hundred lilies were adorning the altars, with other beautiful flowers, such as the finest gladioli and so on, presented a light of heavenly atmosphere.

GROUP OF CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICAN ENGINEERS TO U. S.

To Study REA Methods—To Facilitate and Expand Mutual Understanding.

The Department of Agriculture announces that a group of outstanding young Central and South American engineers will spend a year studying the methods and techniques of the Rural Electrification Administration. One of these engineers, Manuel Lopez Jimenez, of Peru, is on his way by sea to the United States and another, Luis Adolfo Cagno Rossi, of Uruguay, is due to sail from Montevideo on May 30. Both engineers are expected to reach Washington around the middle of June. About half a dozen others are expected to leave their respective countries within the next few weeks.

The plan of having a group of engineers from the other American republics spend a year as student members of the REA staff is a cooperative effort by the various American Governments concerned to facilitate and expand mutual understanding of technical electrification problems.

After a short period of orientation the Central and South Americans will be given training and practical duties in keeping with their experience and ability.

During their year in North America, the REA will make arrangements for their housing, for their training, and for inspection trips which they will take. These will include assignments with leading manufacturers of electrical supplies and equipment. Toward the close of their stay, they will be assigned to visit REA systems throughout the United States in company with REA construction and operations engineers.

STAR-STUDED "ZIEGFELD GIRL" ON SCREEN AT A. & G. THEATER

Sunday and Monday—Is Breath-Taking Spectacle

With an all-star cast in the most elaborate production to come out of Hollywood in a decade, "Ziegfeld Girl" opening at the A. & G. Theater, is heralded as a spectacular treat for eyes and ears.

A series of musical numbers stars Judy Garland, Hedy Lemarr, Lana Turner and Tony Martin, together with six of America's most beautiful girls dressed in exotic Adrian creations. James Stewart plays the dramatic lead in the story by William Anthony McGuire, who wrote the screen's "The Great Ziegfeld," as well as many of Florenz Ziegfeld's original Broadway shows.

Directed by Robert Z. Leonard who was responsible for "The Great Ziegfeld," the dramatic theme traces the lives and loves of the three feminine stars who are picked from obscurity to win fame in Ziegfeld's follies. They are Judy Garland as Susan Gallagher, Hedy Lemarr as Sandra Koller and Lana Turner as Sheila Regan, with Stewart playing Gilbert Young, truck-driver sweetheart who loses Sheila to wealthy Geoffrey Collis, played by Ian Hunter. Tony Martin as singing star, Frank Merton of the follies falls in love with Sandra, who although infatuated for a time, remains loyal to her brilliant but impoverished husband, Franz, played by Philip Dorn.

Only Susan wins final stardom. She also has the satisfaction of seeing her father, Charles Winniger, as old-time vaudeville star, Pop Gallagher, together with his partner, Al Shear, conquer Broadway with the "Gallagher and Shear" number. In the end, Sheila dies on the eve of Susan's triumph in a new follies which the critics are pronouncing the best of all.

Supporting the stars in the film's galaxy of well-known names are Jackie Cooper, Edward Everett Horton, Paul Kelly, Eve Arden, Don Dailey, Jr., Ray Holden, Felix Bressart and Rose Hobart, together with 100 of the most beautiful girls in America, chosen from a thousand applicants.

TRAWICKS TELL OF TRAVELS TO MOTOR TO MEXICO IN THREE WEEKS.

So fascinated with Mexico were the Lawrence B. Trawicks last summer says Elizabeth Kell in the New Orleans States, that they plan to drive there again in three weeks to spend the greater part of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Trawick spent from last June to November motoring over the country, down to Oaxaca, through the ancient ruins of Mitla. Yesterday morning when Mrs. Trawick talked on Mexico at the Orleans Club she showed scrapes with the mosaic design of Mitla on them. This interesting speaker and inveterate traveler, wore a becoming light blue crepe dress with primmed white hat and white accessories to the club and was among those lunching later at the speakers table with Mrs. Chaille Jamison, president of the club, and members of the committee in charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Trawick toured the Orient a few years ago and are fond of exploring out-of-the-way and historic spots.

Prof. Trawick, who is retired, spent many years in Bay St. Louis as city superintendent of city schools, later going to high school, New Orleans.
